

ARE YOU STRESSED DURING THE HOLIDAY'S?

DOES THINKING ABOUT LOST LOVED ONES GET YOU DOWN?

Lavender's Funeral Service, Inc. will host its Annual
"DEALING WITH BEREAVEMENT DURING THE HOLIDAYS"
Seminar

Sunday, December 6, 2015, 6 p.m. - 7 p.m.

in our

James & Lola Lavender Chapel of Lavender's Funeral Service

Suffering the loss of a loved one can be very difficult, especially during the holidays. Reverend Skymanski Fields, Pastor of One Zion United A.M.E. Zion Church in Birmingham, Alabama, and husband of Aliceville High School graduate Mechelle Rice, will be offering positive ways to get through the holidays while dealing with the death of loved ones.

There will also be a Special Memorial Service to acknowledge those we've loved and lost. Please come and bring your whole family and be a part of this helpful and caring event. Gain information to help yourself or possibly someone else. It promises to be a wonderful opportunity for Christian fellowship.

EVERYONE IS WELCOME!

 Refreshments will be served!
